

Breton Downs Cast and Crew Pledge

Theatre is a discipline. It teaches you to look beyond your own individual talents, strengthens self-esteem and allows cooperation towards a common purpose. It requires a high level of commitment and respect for others. Here is our Breton Downs Theatre Production Pledge. Read it carefully and abide by its principles. Please sign it with your parents and return to it the office by Friday, January 15th.

1. I will be prompt and prepared for every rehearsal. This includes always having your script (libretto).
2. I will make every performance my best, regardless of my role.
3. I will always show respect to all actors, crew, and adults. No exceptions.
4. I will cooperate with all cast and crew members.
5. When I am not on stage, I will actively watch characters on stage or work on getting my homework done.
6. During performances, I will remain in the dressing room until I am called for my scene.
7. I will encourage all cast and crew members every day.
8. Please email Mrs Timmer (Marybethtimmer@att.net) & Mr. Woodward (mwoodwar@egrps.org) if you are ill or will not be able to attend a rehearsal.
9. If I am not willing to abide by this pledge, I understand that I will be removed from the cast or crew and no longer be a part of the production. This includes being absent without notification.
